

Free Services:

- Over 62,000 items available to browse and checkout: books, magazines, movies, books on CD,
- For your research needs the Reference Department contains encyclopedias: Medical & World Book, Law Books on MS State Laws, Public Notices, and books on the history of MS and Laurel.
- If you are researching your family history, the Genealogy Department has family records, newspapers on microfilm and many books containing family records from different counties.
- Programs/Events for Children and Adults
- Children's Educational Computers
- Internet Accessible Computers
- WiFi

Visit either Laurel-Jones County Library or Ellisville Public Library to find out other services available.